

Technical Interview Questions: Windows Security

Question #1:

Can you explain what Group Policy Objects (GPOs) are? How are they useful in a Windows environment?

Question #2:

What is Active Directory? What is it used for?

Question #3:

Explain the differences between domains, forests, and trees.

Question #4:

What is the domain controller?

Question #5:

What does the event viewer do?

Question #6:

Explain what RAID is and give a use-case example for Windows Server.

Question #7:

How do you access the command-line interface (CLI) in Windows Server? What is it called?

Question #8:

Which commands can you use to test network connectivity within a Windows OS environment?

Question #9:

Where are logs located in Windows?

Question #10:

What does System32 stand for? What does it mean?